ERIE INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT
TOM RIDGE FIELD

Welcome!

Welcome to Erie, Pennsylvania's fourth largest city and the only Pennsylvania Port on the Great Lakes. Located along the shores of one of the world's best-protected harbors, Erie has an extensive maritime history as a Great Lakes City. Central to the Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Buffalo triangle, Erie is within 500 miles of more than half of the U.S. population and is accessible by automobile, boat, plane, train, or bus. A truly diverse city, Erie boasts a wealth of natural beauty, fascinating history, active cultural and arts scenes, diverse ethnic heritage and first-rate sports teams. Erie offers the cultural and entertainment options you'd expect from a big city, plus the friendliness and leisurely pace of a smaller town.

While you're here, make sure to stop by the NEW Erie Visitor Center inside the Tom Rige Environmental Center!

"I was born and raised in Erie, Pennsylvania. I love Erie. My wife, Rhonda, and I raised our three children here. You cannot beat Erie's beautiful beaches and spectacular sunsets."

Eat & Drink

"I love Erie's thriving local food, wine and craft beer scene. Eating, walking and learning in downtown Erie is a delicious way to spend an afternoon or evening. As a mom to two little girls, I really love all the family-friendly activities that Erie has to offer."

KELLY KARNS | OWNER – ERIE FOOD TOURS

"I came to Erie, Pennsylvania when I was just 18 years old, one of the first Irish students to study at Mercyhurst University. I love Erie so much, I've made it my home. As far as beer is concerned, there's no place better. The local breweries in Erie produce some of the finest beers around."
